NAMES.

A.

G.

L. Lavendula.

I. Spigo.

G. Lavendel.

F. le Lavende.

S. Albuzema.

D. Lavendel.

COMMON NARROW LEAV'D LAVENDER.

PART

Le

Flow

PREPA

A

and a

PLACE.

In Gardens only.

Is c

Flower

June an

DESCRIPTION.

A Sprig of Lavender 1, whose Leaves are of a very white, Wi cover'd with a white, soft, downy Matter. A Stalk with the Leaves, and Flowers cut 2, 2, being part of the same Plant. The Stalk 3, cut Tra is square, channel'd 4, and composed of white Tubes. The Empalement plish, Cottony, close at the End; having a little Point on the Top al
The Flowers 6, are between Blue and Purple, set with short White Ha and without. A Flower in the Calix 7, forward 8, sideways in the 9, out of it 10. The Tube is ribb'd, and goes from the Purple to almos
The Seed-Vessel in Front 11, is a shining light Green. Part of the the Seed-Vessel and Style 12; the Chives 13 are hairy, these and t are a purplish White; on the Summits is a Yellow Farina.

VIRTUES.

Lavender is a warm Aromatic Plant, and the distill'd Wate agreable Odour, and is used in strengthening Fomentations.

T. Sheldrake delin.